

The length of human pregnancies from conception to births is normally distributed with a mean of 266 days and standard deviation of 16 days.

What percentage of births would be between 234 and 266 days?

What percentage of births would be between 298 and 250 days?

If Colorado had 66,613 births last year, how many pregnancies were more than 298 days and less than 234 days?